

What's On at Ayscoughfee Hall Museum and
Gardens during 2009

Ayscoughfee Hall
Museum and Gardens

All events are FREE, unless stated otherwise.

May

Friday 1st to
Sunday 31st May

Spalding Arts and Crafts Society exhibition in the Geest Gallery.

Saturday 2nd to
Monday 4th May

Ayscoughfee Spring Craft Fair
There'll be a range of stalls within the Hall and throughout the Gardens, providing the ideal opportunity to buy local crafts and watch demonstrations.

Wednesday 13th to
Saturday 16th May

Act II Theatre Company present
The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe promenade performance.

(2 performances per night, at 5.30pm and 7.30pm.)
(Ticket prices will apply, please ask for further details, or see local press)

Wednesday 20th May

'Sing Up' workshop for 18 years+
6.30pm- 8.00pm
Please ask for further details.

June

Monday 1st to
Tuesday 30th June

Norman Rossiter exhibition in the Geest Gallery.

Saturday 6th to
Sunday 7th June

Period musicians in the Museum.
Discover the music and musical instruments of the past.
Turn up and join in- no musical ability necessary!

Tuesday 9th June

'Sing Up' workshop for 18 years+
6.30pm- 8.00pm
Please ask for further details.

Wednesday 10th June

Talk- The Life and Work of Charles Frederick Worth
by Dr. Alison Goodrum of Nottingham Trent University.
7.30pm, tickets are priced at £1, and are available from
Ayscoughfee Hall Museum.

Tuesday 23rd June

'Sing Up' workshop for 18 years+
6.30pm- 8.00pm
Please ask for further details.

Wednesday 24th June Talk- Pottery Collectables of the Future
by Julia Knight of Ayscoughfee Hall Museum.
1pm, tickets are priced at £1, and are available from
Ayscoughfee Hall Museum.

July

Wednesday 1st to
Friday 31st July 'Pallets of 3' exhibition in the Geest Gallery

Wednesday 8th July Talk- Big Ben and the Palace of Westminster
by Alice Robotham of Ayscoughfee Hall Museum
1pm, tickets are priced at £1, and are available from
Ayscoughfee Hall Museum.

Tuesday 14th July 'Sing Up' workshop for 18 years+
6.30pm- 8.00pm
Please ask for further details.

Wednesday 22nd July Talk- The early history of Ayscoughfee Hall
by Richard Davies of Ayscoughfee Hall Museum
7.30pm, tickets are priced at £1, and are available from
Ayscoughfee Hall Museum.

Wednesday 29th July Summer craft workshop
To be confirmed, please ask or see local press for details.

August

Saturday 1st to
Monday 31st August J Lincoln exhibition in the Geest Gallery

Wednesday 12th August Summer craft workshop
To be confirmed, please ask or see local press for details.

Saturday 29th to
Monday 31st August Lord Burgh's Retinue pitch their Medieval camp in Ayscoughfee Gardens.
There'll be lots to do, and even take part in!

September

Tuesday 1st to
Wednesday 30th September Mr W Hyme exhibition in the Geest Gallery

Thursday 10th to
Sunday 13th September Lincolnshire Heritage Open Days