The Spalding Gentlemen's Society room

You have found your perfect partner

Now for the perfect venue

Your Wedding Day at Ayscoughfee Hall

Ayscoughfee Hall Museum, which is licensed to hold civil ceremonies, is an intimate and unique venue that can be tailor made to be as special and individual as you both are.

Ayscoughfee Hall Museum is a Medieval hall dating back to 1451, an impressive Grade 1 listed building - which makes it an amazing and unique setting for your wedding.

The Spalding Gentlemen's Society room, one of our licensed rooms, holds up to 40 guests, enabling you to enjoy a beautifully intimate ceremony, surrounded by those closest to you. This room provides views over the South Lawn, with its iconic Yew Trees that are over 200 years old.

The adjacent 19th Century Library provides a fantastic setting for photographs and signing the Register, and is also licensed for ceremonies, with a maximum capacity of six people.

The Hall is set in five acres of charming gardens with its famous array of yew trees, landscaped features and formal lake, providing striking opportunities for your photographs.

The Garden Room

After your ceremony, why not hold a drinks reception in our Garden Room? Opening onto our South Lawn, this is the ideal place to receive and catch up with your guests and have some well-deserved refreshment after your ceremony.

The Service We Offer

Our dedicated wedding co-ordinators are available to guide you through your wedding planning from beginning to end. We are always happy to discuss your specific requirements, and believe in making the arrangements for your wedding as smooth and relaxed as possible.

We pride ourselves in taking enormous care over every tiny detail, and look forward to working with you to make your wedding a perfect and individual occasion.

The Hall is situated close to the town centre of Spalding, and we are located next to a large public car park for your guests. There are a variety of places to stay in Spalding and the surrounding areas. The Hall and Gardens have disabled access.

All of these details add up to a truly magical venue and a day to remember.
