

Counter Terrorism Privacy Notice

What this Privacy Notice covers

Your privacy is very important to South Holland District Council.

South Holland District Council is the Data Controller responsible for the personal information you may provide in relation to the investigation and enforcement of anti-social behaviour and environmental crime.

Our Data Protection Officer can be contacted by phone on 01775 761161, via email: legal.team@breckland-sholland.gov.uk or by writing to us at Legal Services, South Holland District Council, Priory Road, Spalding, Lincolnshire, PE11 2XE.

Your data will be also be processed by Lincolnshire Police. Lincolnshire Police Data Protection Officer can be contacted at DPO@lincs.pnn.police.uk or by post at Data Protection Officer, Information Management Unit, Police Headquarters, PO Box 999, Lincoln, LN5 7PH.

Why we need your personal data

Your information will be used to assist in the prevention of terrorism.

The legal basis for processing your data is Article 6.1(c) of the General Data Protection Regulations, as it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation under the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015.

It may be necessary to process data revealing your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or trade union membership and or data concerning your health, sex life or sexual orientation. Where this Special category data is required, it is processed under Article 9(2)(g) of the General Data Protection Regulations, for the reasons of substantial public interest, as the Council has a duty under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 to assist in the prevention of individuals being drawn into terrorism.

How your data is used

The council has a duty in the exercise of its functions to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism.

When taking a report which relates to concerns about an individual the following details may be asked for:

- your name
- your address
- contact details
- details of how your concern.

The council would pass all details of the report onto the Lincolnshire Police.

The council also coordinates training for staff in relation to the 'prevent' strand of Counter Terrorism. Details that would be taken would include names and job titles.

The details will be kept on file for three years and then destroyed.

How long the information is kept for

Reports received in relation to concerns about an individual would be retained for a period of six years.

Details of those that have attended training would be retain for a period of three years.

Your rights

You have the right to access your data and correct any inaccuracies. For further details of your rights please contact the Data Protection Officer or go to our website for a more detailed explanation www.sholland.gov.uk.

Please visit www.sholland.gov.uk/privacy to view our full privacy policy.