PARISH OF TYDD ST MARY – REDUCTION OF COUNCILLOR SEATS

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT IN HEALTH ACT 2007

TERMS OF REFERENCE

THESE TERMS OF REFERENCE HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED BY THE COUNCIL ON:

30 SEPTEMBER 2022

SUBMISSION AND COMMENTS ON THIS TERMS OF REFERENCE DOCUMENT SHOULD BE MADE BY 28 OCTOBER 2022

1. INTRODUCTION:

Request from Tydd St Mary Parish Council

- 1.1 Tydd St Mary Parish Council has requested that the number of seats on Tydd St Mary Parish Council be reduced by two members. The Parish Council currently has 9 seats, the request is to reduce the total to 7 Councillors.
- 1.2 The request has been made by Tydd St Mary Parish Council following their meeting held on 5 July 2022 and due to the fact that they have a shortage of Councillors.
- 1.3 In accordance with Section 82 of the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007 (the Act), South Holland District Council (the Council) may conduct a Community Governance Review.

The Legislative framework

- 1.4 In undertaking the Review, the Council will be guided by Part 4 of the LGPIHA 2007. This Act has transferred powers to principal councils that previously, under the Local Government Act 1997, has been shared with the Electoral Commission's Boundary Committee for England.
- 1.5 The Council is also required to have regard to Guidance on Community Governance Reviews issued in accordance with section 100(4) of the Act by the government Department for Communities and Local Government and the Electoral Commission. The link for this is https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/8312/1527635.pdf
- 1.6 Section 81 of the Act requires the Council to publish its Terms of Reference document in a review.

What is a Community Governance Review (CGR)?

- 1.7 A CGR is an opportunity for local authorities to consult with local people and organisations and to make changes to community governance if necessary. The council is required to ensure that community governance within the area under review will be:
 - Reflective of the identities and interests of the community in that area; and
 - Is effective and convenient.

A CGR can be a review of the whole or part of the district council area to consider one or more of the following:

- Creating, merging, altering or abolishing parishes;
- The naming of parishes and the style of new parishes;
- The electoral arrangements for parishes (ordinary year of election; council size, number of councillors to be elected to the council and parish warding), and

- Grouping parishes under a common parish council or de-grouping parishes.

1.8 This review will consider the request of the Parish Council to reduce its size by two members. As this request does not have any impact on the governance arrangements of any neighbouring parishes, it is considered appropriate to conduct this review as a one-off review. The District Council last completed a full electoral review of its district in 2007.

Parish governance in our area

1.9 Parish Councils play an important role in terms of community empowerment at the local level. The aim is to ensure that the electoral arrangements of parishes, such as the warding arrangements and the allocation of councillors, are appropriate, equitable and understood by their electorate.

Timescale and Authority for the Review

1.10 The Review must be concluded within a period of 12 months starting with the day on which the District Council publishes the terms of reference of the review, and is concluded when the Council publishes the recommendations made in the review.

1.11 As the principal authority, South Holland District Council is responsible for undertaking any CGR within its electoral areas. Any reports recommending any CGR, its terms of reference, recommendations and whether to implement any changes will be taken to full Council for consideration and approval before a Community Governance Order is made.

2. CONSULTATION

How the Council proposes to conduct consultations during the Review

2.1 The Council has now drawn up and published this Terms of Reference document. This document lays out the aims of the Review, the legislation that guides it and some of the policies that the Council considers important in the review.

2.2 In coming to its recommendations in this review, the Council will take account of the views of local people. The Act requires the Council to consult the local government electors for the area under review and any other person or body who appears to have an interest in the Review and to take the representations that are received into account by judging them against the criteria in the LGPIHA 2007.

2.3 The Council is mindful of the government's guidance that "CGRs should be conducted transparently so that local people and other local stakeholders who may have an interest are made aware of the outcome of the decisions taken on them and the reasons behind these decisions". The Council will endeavour to ensure that local government electors and any other person or body that appears to have an interest in the Review have every opportunity to express their views. The Council recognises the importance of ensuring full consultation and that more effective proposals will be developed if all stakeholders have a full opportunity to contribute to the Review.

2.4 The Council will consult with the following individuals/organisations during the Review:

- Electors of the parish by placing public notices on the Parish Council notice boards and in the local press and on websites.
- Tydd St Mary Parish Councillors
- District Councillors for the Long Sutton ward
- County Councillor for the Holbeach Rural Division
- Local MP

2.5 In accordance with the Act, representations received in connection with the Review will be taken into account, and steps will be taken to notify consultees of the outcome of the Review. The Council proposes to use its website, direct personal communication and placing of key documents on deposit at our Council Offices and other locations as appropriate to achieve these objectives. The Council has to be mindful of the costs of a Review, and it will endeavour to ensure that the consultation process is cost effective and that only reasonable costs are incurred.

3. ELECTORATE

- 3.1 The Council has used the latest published electorate figures for the 2022 Register of Electors published in September 2022 in providing the parish electorate. For Tydd St Mary parish this was 858.

4. THE PRESENT STRUCTURE AND ELECTORAL ARRANGEMENTS OF THE PARISH

- 4.1 Tydd St Mary Parish Council is not warded and has 9 members that cover the parish. This means that the ratio of Councillors to electors based on an electorate of 858 is 1:95

5. PROPOSED ELECTORAL ARRANGEMENTS

- 5.1 The proposal from Tydd St Mary Parish Council is to reduce the total number of Councillors from 9 to 7. This would result in the representation changing from 1:95 to 1:122
- 5.2 In its Guidance, the government states “that the conduct of parish council business does not usually require a large body of councillors”. The Local Government Act 1972 states that the number of parish councillors for each parish council shall not be less than five. However there is little further guidance on appropriate numbers of parish councillors to be elected to a council. There is no maximum number and there are no rules relating to the allocations of councillors. In 1988 NALC (National Association of Local Councils) published guidance on suggested numbers of Councillors to be allocated depending on the size of the population being represented, as follows:

Electors	Councillors	Electors	Councillors
Up to 900	7	10400	17
1400	8	11900	18
2000	9	13500	19
2700	10	15200	20
3500	11	17000	21
4400	12	18900	22
5400	13	20900	23
6500	14	23000	24
7700	15	Over 23000	25
9000	16

- 5.3 The government has advised in its guidance that “it is an important democratic principle that each person’s vote should be of equal weight so far as possible, having regard to its population, geography and the pattern of communities”
- 5.4 While the Council is anxious to ensure that the allocation of councillors is broadly equitable across all parishes in the district, it is also appreciated that different levels of representation between urban and rural parishes have long been considered to be appropriate, because there has long been a recognition that population scarcity in more rural parishes creates particular challenges with regard to representation.

6. REORGANISATION OF COMMUNITY GOVERNANCE ORDER AND COMMENCEMENT

- 6.1 The review will be completed when the Council adopts the Reorganisation of Community Governance Order. Copies of this Order and the document(s) which set out the reasons for the decisions that the Council has taken (including where it has decided to make no change following a Review) will be deposited at the Council's offices and on their website.
- 6.2 Any revised electoral arrangements will come into force at the next elections to the parish council which will be 4 May 2023.
