Information to bring to your Housing Options appointment where you have been served notice to quit by a private landlord

You are required to bring identification and all of the following documents to your appointment. We are not able to see you without this information and will have to arrange an alternative appointment.

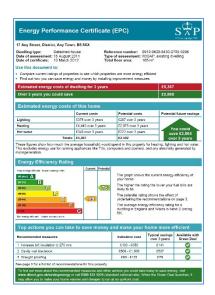

1. Notice to quit

3. Gas safety certificate (where the property has gas)

2. Energy Performance Certificate (EPC)

4. Tenancy Deposit Protection Paperwork (where you have paid a deposit)

By law, your landlord must provide all of the above documents to you if your tenancy started after 1 October 2015. Your notice is not valid If your landlord has not provided you with this information.

If you have misplaced this information, you can request another copy from your landlord/letting agent.
